FEDS GIVE FEEDBACK ON OHIO'S ESSA PLAN – In December, the U.S. Department of Education (USDOE) provided feedback to the Ohio Department of Education regarding the state's Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) plan and requested that it be revised and resubmitted by January 4th. Education Week noted that the USDOE flagged Ohio for issues in its accountability system and process for identifying low-performing schools. USDOE feedback said the plan was unclear on how the state is considering English-language proficiency as a separate indicator since it is incorporated into its gap-closing measure, needs to better explain how the gap-closing measure fits into the overall system, and needs to ensure timelines for flagging struggling schools comply with law.

Evaluation of the Teacher Incentive Fund: Final Report on Implementation and Impacts of Pay-for-Performance Across Four Years – USDOE/IES/NCEE

- The report provides implementation and impact information after four school years. Implementation was similar across the four years, with most districts implementing at least 3 of the 4 required components for teachers. In a subset of 10 districts participating in the random assignment study, educators' understanding of performance measures improved over time. However, many teachers were unaware that they were eligible for a bonus, and their understanding did not improve after the second year of implementation. Teachers also underestimated the maximum amount they could earn. The pay-for-performance bonus policy had small, positive impacts on students' reading and math achievement

The Impact of Providing Performance Feedback to Teachers and Principals

- This report is based on a study on the implementation of teacher and principal performance measures highlighted by recent research, as well as the impact of providing feedback based on these measures. As part of the study, eight districts were provided resources and support to implement the following three performance measures in a selected sample of schools in 2012–13 and 2013–14

GOP Week in Review

WKSU: Ohio's Year in Review 2017: Changes to education policy

"Looking back, basically a time of transition and a time of starting to listen to what's going on in the field and starting to implement common-sense reforms as opposed to just mandates that people can't necessarily comply with," Brenner said.

Sandusky Register: Busy year for Shores & Islands

In April we were proud to provide support to the governor's office, city of Sandusky, Cedar Point, state Sen. Randy Gardner, state Rep. Steve Arndt, TourismOhio and others in hosting the governor's State of the State address at the Sandusky State Theatre.

The Advertiser-Tribune: SRPC, elections board ready to go

Reineke presented an Ohio flag and a U.S. flag that were flown over the state capitol building Dec. 19 as a gift to the elections panel. "I'm very happy to be here," he said. "We've all got to keep working together to make great things happen."

WOSU: Ohio lawmaker pushes for harsher penalties for parolees who fail drug tests

Republican state Rep. Niraj Antani, the bill's sponsor, wants to create more access to treatment facilities and says jails should not be used as detox centers. "But until that time, jail is simply the best place for someone to detox and to be safely placed if they are (using) heroin and fentanyl - until we can figure out something else for them," Antani said.

Mansfield News Journal: Community honors law enforcement with 'Spread the Light'

The evening ended with state Rep. Mark Romanchuk, R-Ontario, counting down to officers switching on the lights and sirens in more than a dozen police vehicles to officially "spread the light" and start the week.

Associated Press: Proposed Ohio law would prevent forced nurse overtime

State Rep. Robert Sprague, a Findlay Republican, said he's concerned that exhausted nurses working long hours can lead to preventable medical errors. "It's a recipe for problems," Sprague told The Dayton Daily News.

Findlay Courier: Sprague bill would ban forced nurse OT

A bill introduced in the Ohio House by state Rep. Robert Sprague, R-Findlay, would prohibit hospitals from requiring a registered nurse or licensed practical nurse to work overtime as a condition of employment.

Wilmington News Journal: Guest column from Speaker Cliff Rosenberger: Buckeye Pathway guides policy

This member-driven document outlines our priorities and serves as a roadmap to three objectives: improve Ohio's economic environment, enhance opportunities for all Ohioans, and strengthen families and communities. Halfway through this term, we have approved more than 30 bills that align with these principles.

Toledo Blade: Republican lawmakers push to make Ohio "right to work"

The resolutions are sponsored by state Rep. John Becker (R., Cincinnati) and state Rep. Craig Riedel (R., Defiance). ... "It's not so much that I'm opposed to unions," Mr. Riedel said. "I believe strongly that employees ought not to be required to pay fair-share fees if they choose not to join that union. If that individual chooses not to be a part of that union, they're on their own. They would not get any representation whatsoever by that collective-bargaining agreement."

Your News Now: HB 336 plans to help Ohioans with suspended licenses

"This would help reduce the number of suspensions the bureau has to keep track of, it would also provide an incentive for a person to get insurance, get their license reinstated, and be able, if you're not able now to find a job because of lack of transportation, to be able to do that," said Rep. Bob Cupp, 4th District Rep for the State of Ohio.

STATE BOARD RECOMMENDS EXTENSION OF GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS FLEXIBILITY

– At its meeting this week, the State Board of Education approved a recommendation to extend graduation requirements flexibility given to the Class of 2018 to the Classes of 2019 and 2020. The General Assembly will have to approve the recommendation for it to be effective. Rep. Andrew Brenner, House Education & Career Readiness Committee chair, said that the House is working on its own permanent solution and the board's recommendation is unnecessary.

Education Board Wants to Extend Relaxed Graduation Requirements – Columbus Dispatch

- The Ohio Board of Education voted 16-1 Tuesday to urge lawmakers to extend relaxed requirements for a high school diploma already given to the class of 2018 to the classes of 2019 and 2020 as well

Board Backs Diploma Flexibility as Brenner Hints at House Plan; Report Card Proposal Delayed – Hannah

- Students in the graduating classes of 2019 and 2020 could get the same flexibility on graduation requirements as those in the class of 2018 after a vote Tuesday by the State Board of Education. But the move ultimately requires action by the General Assembly, and one key legislator said Tuesday the House is already working on its own plan

Rep. Duffey Plans Bill for 'Dashboard' Report Card without Letter Grades – Hannah

- Later this month or early in the next, Rep. Mike Duffey (R-Worthington) hopes to introduce legislation to overhaul state report cards for local school districts, which he said suffer from arbitrary measures, questionable methodology and a lack of buy-in from local communities, among other problems. The bill would end the assignment of A-F letter grades

Critics Want Revamp of Ohio's Report Cards on Schools – Columbus Dispatch

- How that data are calculated and translated has turned the annual report card into a lightning rod of criticism from teachers, parents and education officials who question whether the information is understandable or fair, or if it provides an accurate measure of a district's academic performance

ECOT Case Prompts Calls for Better Rules to Verify Student Enrollment – Columbus Dispatch

ECOT Losing Sponsor, Could Close Next Week – Columbus Dispatch

- The troubled Electronic Classroom of Tomorrow could shut down as early as next week after its long-time sponsor decided to sever its relationship with the school due to the online school's growing financial troubles

Sponsor Plans to Shutter ECOT Next Week – Hannah

- Electronic Classroom of Ohio (ECOT) warned repeatedly for months that the state's move to reclaim past funding and garnish ongoing payments could force it to close this year. But the end might instead be imposed by its sponsor, which wrote a letter Wednesday telling ECOT officials it wants to shutter the school next week

ECOT Fighting to Stay Alive But Options Few – Columbus Dispatch

- A modification to the contract between Lake Erie West and ECOT signed in April 2017 says if the school is not renewed due to lack of fiscal management, the school must close permanently and “the school shall not enter into a contract with any other sponsor”

School Districts Brace for Influx of ECOT Students – Columbus Dispatch

- What does it look like when thousands of students — roughly the enrollment of one of Ohio’s largest school districts — suddenly lose their school? Ohio might be on the verge of finding out, as the online Electronic Classroom of Tomorrow, where between 12,000 and 20,000 students attend at any given time, could close within a week because of the lack of a sponsor and bonded treasurer

Few States Want to Offer District Chance to Give ACT, SAT Instead of State Test – EdWeek

- The Every Student Succeeds Act may have kept annual testing as a federal requirement. But it also aims to help states cut down on the number of assessments their students must take by giving districts the chance to use a nationally-recognized college entrance exam, instead of the regular state test, for accountability purposes

Are the ACT or SAT Good Substitutes for State Tests? New Study Raises Questions – EdWeek

- The study, by the Assessment Solutions Group, focuses on one slice of the testing question: whether it's a good idea to let some districts substitute college-entrance exams for state tests. But the research also echoes broader questions about states' decisions to use college-entrance tests, statewide, to measure student achievement
